Meditation for the Day

I believe that life is a school in which I must learn spiritual things. I must trust in God and He will teach me. I must listen to God and He will speak through my mind. I must commune with Him in spite of all opposition and every obstacle. There will be days when I will hear no voice in my mind and when there will come no intimate heart to heart communion. But if I persist, and make a life habit of schooling myself in spiritual things, God will reveal Himself to me in many ways. Hazelden: Twenty-Four Hours a Day

CURRENT ISSUES IN THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH-

General Conference 2020 is coming up on May 5-15, 2020 in Minneapolis, MN. Major issues are being considered which may include a division of the Church into two or more separate entities. We want to openly discuss the issues involved – with each other openly here at PUMC. We will be providing prayer and discussion times, educational material, and answers to many of the questions you have.

Pastor Mike is available to discuss the issues and to help us to be prepared. Start with reading basic information to become more aware.
